

Erisort Training

Training Directory

Introduction

Thank you for taking the time to look at our Training Directory.

Erisort Training are a leading provider of Emergency Response and Crisis Management Services and are delighted to offer the following training courses.

Our range of Emergency Response courses are designed to provide you with the training you need.

From basic awareness courses through to competency assessment we strive to meet your requirements.

We are also happy to discuss customising and adapting any of our courses to meet specific needs.

For more information on any of our courses or discuss your training needs contact us at:

enquiries@erisorttraining.com

Visit

www.erisorttraining.com

Major Emergency Management—Initial Response

Course Overview:

The course is designed for delegates who are actual or potential Emergency Managers. The purpose of the course is to introduce delegates to the principles of Major Emergency Management and provide them with the opportunity to act as the Emergency Manager during simulated emergencies. On completion of the course an appraisal report outlining the delegates performance is produced.

Course Structure:

The course combines theory and practical elements. Practical elements are simulated using our Mobile Simulator.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Classroom presentations, focusing on the role of the Emergency Manager and effective management strategies to be used during emergencies.
- Practical exercises, performed using our mobile simulator. Each delegate is given the opportunity to act as the Emergency Manager.
- Feedback including formal appraisal

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Major Emergencies
- The Emergency Manager
- The Emergency Command Centre
- Information Management Systems
- Pre-Planning & Maintaining a State of Readiness
- Dealing with Stress

Practical Elements

- Assessing the Situation
- Taking Effective Action
- Maintaining Communications
- Delegating Authority
- Managing Self and Team

Prerequisites:

None

Duration:

4 Days

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

Control Room Operator—Initial Response

Course Overview:

The course is designed for delegates who are actual or potential Control Room Operators. The purpose of the course is to introduce delegates to the principles of Control Room Operations during an emergency and provide them with the opportunity to act as the Control Room Operator during simulated Emergencies. On completion of the course an appraisal report outlining the delegates performance is produced.

Course Structure:

The course combines theory and practical elements. Practical elements are simulated using our Mobile Simulator.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Classroom presentations, focusing on the role of the Control Room Operator during emergencies.
- Practical exercises, performed using our mobile simulator. Each delegate is given the opportunity to act as the Control Room Operator.
- Feedback including formal appraisal.

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Emergency Response Roles & Responsibilities
- Alarm Management & Interpretation
- Emergency Shutdown Systems
- Detection Systems
- Process Monitoring
- Dealing with Stress

Practical Elements

- Controlling Critical Situations
- Coordinating the Response to Emergencies

Prerequisites:

None

Duration:

4 Days

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

OIM Controlling Emergencies

Course Overview:

This course is designed for OIM's, their Deputies or Emergency Response Personnel who may have a command responsibility during emergencies. The purpose of the course is to assess candidates based on their performance managing major emergencies during simulated emergencies. On completion of the course an assessment report outlining the candidates performance is produced.

Course Structure:

The course is predominantly practical. Prior to attendance candidates are required to produce evidence from their facility that they have an understating of their facility and its emergency response arrangements. Practical elements are assessed within a simulated environment.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Overview of the performance criteria.
- Familiarisation of simulator facilities
- Review and Assessment of Facility Based Evidence
- Practical exercises and formal assessment, performed using our mobile simulator.
- Feedback including formal assessment.

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Facility Based Evidence including:
 - Supply information to personnel
 - Manage drills and Exercises
 - Coach Emergency Responders
 - Understand Roles and Responsibilities
 - Pre-planning
 - Ensure Serviceability and Sufficiency of Equipment

Practical Elements

- Assess Situation and Take Effective Action
- Maintain Communications
- Delegate Authority to Act
- Mange Individual and Team Performance
- Deal with Stress in Self and Others

Prerequisites:

Attendance on MEM IR Course. (Recommended)

Facility Based Evidence (Element 1.1)

Details will be provided by Erisort Training.

Duration:

Dependant on requirements.

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

Control Room Operator—Emergency Response

Course Overview:

The course is for Control Room Operators who may have emergency response responsibilities during an emergency. It is designed to assess delegates competence in responding to emergencies. Assessment is based on a maximum of 3 exercises. On completion of the course an assessment report outlining the candidates performance is produced.

Course Structure:

The course is predominantly practical. Prior to attendance candidates are required to produce evidence from their facility that they have an understating of their facility and its emergency response arrangements. Practical elements are assessed within a simulated environment.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Overview of the performance criteria.
- Familiarisation of simulator facilities
- Review and Assessment of Facility Based Evidence
- Practical exercises and formal assessment, performed using our mobile simulator.
- Feedback including formal assessment.

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Facility Based Evidence
 - Effectively Access Emergency Response Procedures
 - Report Anomalies
 - Effectively hand over safety critical information
 - Participate in Drills and Exercises
 - Work Safely in accordance with SSOW

Practical Elements

- Controlling Critical Situations
 - Identify developing and existing situations
 - Interpret Alarms and Take Effective Action
 - Monitor the Situation
 - Communication Critical Information
 - Recognising Limits of Authority
- Coordinating the Response to Emergencies.
 - Make the Situation Safe
 - Activate Relevant Alarms
 - Communicate Effectively

Prerequisites:

Attendance on CRO IR Course (Recommended)

Duration:

Dependant on requirements

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

Plant Manager/Incident Commander—Initial Response

Course Overview:

The course is for delegates who are actual or potential Site Managers or Incident Commanders. It is designed to introduce delegates to the principles of Major Emergency Management and provide them with the opportunity to act as the Emergency Manager during simulated emergencies. On completion of the course an appraisal report outlining the delegates performance is produced.

Course Structure:

The course combines theory and practical elements. Practical elements are simulated using our Mobile Simulator.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Classroom presentations, focusing on the role of the Emergency Manager and effective management strategies to be used during emergencies.
- Practical exercises, performed using our mobile simulator. Each delegate is given the opportunity to act as the Emergency Manager.
- Feedback including formal appraisal

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Major Emergencies
- The Plant Manager/Incident Commander Role
- The Emergency Command Centre
- Information Management Systems
- Pre-Planning & Maintaining a State of Readiness
- Dealing with Stress

Practical Elements

- Assessing the Situation
- Taking Effective Action
- Maintaining Communications
- Delegating Authority
- Managing Self and Team

Prerequisites:

None

Duration:

4 Days

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

OIM Controlling Emergencies—Coaching

Course Overview:

The course is for OIM's who are responsible for the control of emergencies. This course is designed to assess delegates competence in responding to emergencies. Assessment is based on a maximum of 3 exercises.

Course Structure:

The course is predominantly practical. Prior to attendance candidates are required to produce evidence from their facility that they have an understating of their facility and its emergency response arrangements. Practical elements are assessed within a simulated environment.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Overview of the performance criteria.
- Familiarisation of simulator facilities
- Review and Assessment of Facility Based Evidence
- Practical exercises and formal assessment, performed using our mobile simulator.
- Feedback including formal assessment.

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Supply information to personnel
- Manage drills and Exercises
- Coach Emergency Responders
- Understand Roles and Responsibilities
- Pre-planning
- Ensure Serviceability and Sufficiency of Equipment

Practical Elements

- Assess Situation and Take Effective Action
- Maintain Communications
- Delegate Authority to Act
- Mange Individual and Team Performance
- Deal with Stress in Self and Others

Prerequisites:

Attendance on CRO IR Course (Recommended)

Duration:

1-2 Days

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

Major Emergency Management—Awareness

Course Overview:

The course is designed for delegates who are actual or potential Site Managers or Incident Commanders. The course is designed to give delegates an overview of principles of Major Emergency Management.

Course Structure:

The course combines theory and practical elements. Practical elements are simulated using our Mobile Simulator.

Course Content:

The course consists of:

- Classroom presentations, focusing on the role of the Emergency Manager and effective management strategies to be used during emergencies.
- Practical exercises, performed using our mobile simulator. Each delegate is given the opportunity to act as the Emergency Manager.
- Feedback including formal appraisal

Learning Outcomes:

Theory Elements

- Classroom Presentation
- Case Studies
- Group Discussions

Practical Elements

- Table Top Exercises
- Practical Exercise using Mobile Simulator

Prerequisites:

None

Duration:

1-2 Days

Certification:

An Erisort Training Certificate and Appraisal Report will issued on completion of the course.

Revalidation:

None

Venue:

Training can be delivered at locations to suit the client.

Training

Assessment

Competence

www.erisorttraining.com